

P&I WEEK 2019

IMO 2020: CLAIMS AND CATASTROPHES

15 - 17 OCTOBER 2019, LONDON

TUESDAY 15 OCTOBER 2019

LUNCHTIME

12.30 – 12.45 Registration

12.45 – 13.45 IMO 2020: a new dawn in shipping?

Analysis of the new regulatory background and potential impact for the industry outside of the regulatory context.

Alessio Sbraga, Partner
Joseph Malpas, Associate

AFTERNOON

16.45 – 17.00 Registration

17.00 – 18.00 IMO 2020: catastrophe strikes

Casualty response management and dealing with the authorities, including bribery / anti-corruption considerations.

Ross Millar, Master Mariner
Isabel Phillips, Associate

WEDNESDAY 16 OCTOBER 2019

LUNCHTIME

12.30 – 12.45 Registration

12.45 – 13.45 IMO 2020 and liabilities arising out of engine failures

Collision liability, charterparty arguments and cargo claims.

David Morriss, Partner
Victor Fenwick, Legal Director

AFTERNOON

16.45 – 17.00 Registration

17.00 – 18.00 Seaworthiness: has English law become more cargo friendly?

Due Diligence, seaworthiness and passage planning in light of the CMA CGM LIBRA and VOLCAFE judgments.

Andrew Chamberlain, Partner and Mariner
Claire Womersley, Senior Associate and Master Mariner

THURSDAY 17 OCTOBER 2019

LUNCHTIME

12.30 – 12.45 Registration

12.45 – 13.45 The Fire Defence: cargo or carrier friendly?

Container vessel fires and defending cargo claims in the wake of the LADY M and EURASIAN DREAM.

Craig Neame, Partner
Matthew Wilmshurst, Senior Associate

AFTERNOON

16.45 – 17.00 Registration

17.00 – 18.00 IMO 2020: Implications for Insurers

Considering IMO 2020 implications from a P&I and H&M perspective.

Alex Kemp, Partner
Jenny Salmon, Senior Associate

EVENING

18.00

Drinks Reception

The Habit