1 BREXIT PRESENTATION

HFW will come into your business and give an overview presentation on the key legal implications and opportunities regarding the UK's exit from the EU, tailored to you and the sector in which you operate.

Why?

Brexit is potentially the most significant issue in a generation for companies with investments and businesses in Europe. Our entrepreneurial and sector-focused lawyers have detailed knowledge of the legal and commercial issues that could affect your business. We will present these issues to you in a user-friendly way.

How will this help my business?

Our tailored presentation, taking into account the size, turnover and location of your business, will provide you with:

- Direct access to our sector specialists, who understand your industry and Brexit's possible implications for your business.
- Clear and concise thinking around the key issues and opportunities.

2 CORPORATE STRUCTURE AND CONTRACTS REVIEW

We will review your corporate structure, as well as your key existing contracts and terms and conditions.

Why review your corporate structure?

You will want to be confident that your current structure will serve your business needs after Brexit. We will assist with reviewing any regulatory considerations, migration of assets, employment issues and establishment of any new entities.

Why review my documents?

Following the referendum, and UK General Election result, we have seen market uncertainty. Businesses need to review existing contracts to anticipate possible issues arising out of Brexit. Our review will identify any clauses for current or possible future amendment.

What is covered?

Our review will focus on issues such as:

- Risks and opportunities
- Dispute resolution clauses
- Tariffs
- Termination
- Territory

We will provide you with a report setting out which clauses, if any, should be amended and highlighting any other issues relating to Brexit that you may wish to address.

3 RISK MANAGEMENT

In partnership with you, HFW will help to identify key legal risks for your business and advise you on managing and mitigating those risks, enabling you to deliver your strategic priorities.
